Remedy for Fly in Wheat.

Editors Dispatch: I hear there is much "fy" in the wheat that was sowed early this fall. To correct this evil I offer the following remedy, which I and others have suc-cessfully tested for a good many seasons: Sow of air-slaked, or water-slaked, lime one to two bushels per acre broadcast over the wheat in the early morning on the dew, or over night on a clear evening, when there is reason to expect dew or frost. As it dis-solves it will form a leg, which will follow the leaf towards the root, and destroy the egg or chrysalis of the fly near that point. The sower must always sow with the COMMISSIONER'S SALE AT AUC MARTIN AND OTHERS.—By thrue of an order of Richmond Chancery Court in the case of P. M. Tabb and wife vs. Shapard and others, May 6, 1873, I will sell at auction, on the premises (part of Blandon farm), on FRIDAY. November 16, 1877, at 3 o'clock P. M., TWENTY-FOUR AND ONE-FRTH ACRES OF LAND, laid off into lots of about one acre each; a plat of which will be exhibited at the office of the auctioner. These lots will be sold one acre with the privilege of two or three acres; and as they lie beautifully—adjoining one of the handsomest improvements of the city, and in a locality destined at some future day to be the most valuable of suburban investments—should attract the attention of capitalists and others seeking to place money where the quickest returns may be made. Already the capitalists and others seeking to place money where the quickest returns may be made. Already the park recently laid off by the city has assumed proportions beautiful and lovely to behold, and the adjoining lands must necessarily improve in value yearly, giving to the investor a splendid chance for speculation in the advance which must take place in a very short time.

TERMS: One third cash, one third in six months, and the balance in twelve months, the credit installation.

TERMS: One third cash, one third is a months, and the balance in twelve months, the credit instalments to be secured by negotiable notes, with interest added from day of sale (six per cent. per annum), and title retained until the sale is confirmed and deed ordered to be made by the Court.
